

Pay the same amount each month for truly unlimited energy!*

In today's fast-paced times, consumers are always looking for ways to simplify and put more certainty into their lives. Many service providers, such as internet and cell phone, offer set monthly pricing for easier predictability. High energy bills can leave customers frustrated, but thanks to the SteadyLock Plan, opening your monthly bill just got a lot less stressful!

With SteadyLock, you pay one flat monthly charge for your energy supply, giving you one less thing to worry about each month!

- ✓ No more guessing what you're going to pay each month for the supply portion of your energy bill - Unlimited electricity supply for one flat monthly charge
- ✓ Pricing stability and peace of mind regardless of the changes in the seasons or the unpredictability of the weather
- ✓ Similar to Budget Billing, but without the uncertainty of a "settling up" month
